<sup>1</sup>The filing procedures, as outlined in Administrative Order No. 25, are as follows. The below information is exactly the same as that in Administrative Order No. 25, except for the name of the person to whom the filings shall be sent.

With respect to motions contemplated in this Order and all other motions and filings, the following procedures shall apply:

a. Whenever a filing is accompanied by a list of cases to which it applies, the cases shall be listed in chronological order by docket number in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

b. There shall be no motions to join other parties' motions. Motions must be filed either individually on behalf of a party, or jointly on behalf of more than one party.

c. Parties shall not file or submit reply memoranda in support of their motions without leave of court, except in the case of motions for summary judgment.

d. In light of the volume of filings expected in these cases given the number of claims involved, the following procedures apply for the filing of all motions or pleadings that apply identically to ten cases or more: Counsel shall send (1) an original that particular filing will be deemed to have been made in each MARDOC case.

Following these important procedures ensures that the docket for each case is complete and correct.

The Clerk of Court is directed to serve a copy of this Notice on all attorneys appearing in the MARDOC litigation.
