

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

v. : CIVIL ACTION
: :
: :
: :
: NO.

ORDER TO IMPLEMENT SELF-EXECUTING DISCLOSURE

AND NOW, this day of 1997, having granted an extension of time for responding to the complaint, it is hereby ORDERED, unless the Court orders otherwise, the thirty (30) day period within which the parties have a duty to make self-executing disclosures pursuant to the CIVIL JUSTICE EXPENSE AND DELAY REDUCTION PLAN ("the PLAN") shall commence on the date when the response to the complaint would have been due but for the extension of time approved by the Court UNLESS a party makes a properly documented demand for early disclosure pursuant to Section 4.01(D)(iii) of the PLAN. Failure to make the required disclosures will be subject to sanctions pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 37.

LOWELL A. REED, JR., S.J.