As provided in Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 11(b), it is the policy in the Third Circuit that in all cases in which a transcript is required for appellate review and is ordered from a court reporter, in the absence of good cause supported by an affidavit, the transcript must be completed and filed with the Clerk of the District Court no more than forty-five (45) days from the date on which any deposit or prepayment required by the reporter was satisfied. Any court reporter responsible to produce an appellate transcript who cannot complete the transcript as ordered in that time shall submit a request to the Court Services Manager to be removed from further courtroom attendance until the transcript has been completed. The fee charged by the court reporter for the appellate transcript shall be reduced by ten (10) percent if it is filed more than forty-five (45) days after financial arrangement have been settled and, if the transcript is outstanding more than sixty (60) days, the reporter shall be entitled to collect only eight (80) percent of the original fee.
