CERTAIN DEFENDANTS :

ORDER

And now, this 5th day of December, 2012, to assist the Court in addressing the various dispositive motions and motions to preclude experts filed recently in Group 1, and after holding a telephone conference with counsel, it is hereby ordered as follows: All defense counsel who have filed such motions shall submit a list or spreadsheet identifying each motion they have filed by general topic, whether there is a single motion or separate motions raising the issue, and whether the motion raises an issue specific to a defendant or specific to each plaintiff. The list or spreadsheet shall also identify for each motion a list of cases in which the motion was filed and, if possible, the document number for each motion on the main and/or individual dockets. Plaintiffs shall then submit a proposed schedule for responding to the motions, keeping in mind that the schedule shall adhere as closely as possible to the current response deadline. All submissions shall be to Judge Hey and counsel of record but shall not be filed. Defendants' submission is due no later than December 7, 2012. Plaintiffs' submission is due no later than December 12, 2012. Any defendant opposing plaintiffs' proposed schedule shall respond no later than December 14, 2012, proposing an alternate schedule, and shall attempt to confer and submit a joint response.
