ADMINISTRATIVE ORDER NO. 21

THE COURT has received a letter from Intercon, Inc., the Court's designated administrator of the MDL 875 on-line database. Having reviewed the letter, the Court determines that the letter constitutes a motion (or request) by Intercon, Inc. for final payment of fees as outlined in Administrative Order No. 16.

THE COURT ORDERS the following:

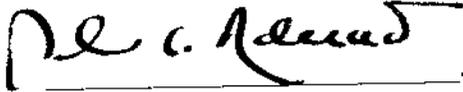

1. The designated Steering Committee representatives (Motley Rice and Forman Perry) shall submit to the court within thirty (30) days a statement as required pursuant to Administrative Order No. 16 setting forth the status of completion of the terms of Administrative Order No. 16 and the work accomplished, together with a statement as to any and all deficiencies relating to the agreement with Intercon, Inc. and the requirements for final payment pursuant to Administrative Order No. 16.
2. Intercon, Inc. Shall provide to the court a written statement in response to the Steering Committee statement within thirty (30) days of its submission to the court.
3. Following the submission of the required statements, the court will set a hearing on the motion for final payment by Intercon, Inc.

THE COURT FURTHER ENJOINS Intercon, Inc. from the following:

1. Taking any action which would share, expose, release or distribute to any non-authorized party any of the data received by Intercon, Inc. or the MDL875submissions.com database pursuant to agreement with the court and/or the Steering Committee..

2. Taking any action which would transfer, destroy, dispose, or render useless any of the data received by Intercon, Inc. or the MDL875submissions.com database pursuant to agreement with the court and/or the Steering Committee.
3. Taking any action which would terminate, take off line, or otherwise impair the continued use of the MDL875submissions.com database.

SO ORDERED this the 8th day of March, 2010.
