ORDER

AND NOW, this 18th day of January, 2013, upon consideration of “Plaintiffs’ Motion To Reconsider and Clarify Order Entered December 4, 2012 Re Striking Interrogatory Answers” e.g. (10-61115 Doc. 131), the response from Georgia-Pacific, LLC e.g. (10-61115 Doc. 132) and any joinders, and for the reasons set out in our January 17, 2013 Memorandum and order, including that CVLO has not provided proper grounds for reconsideration, see (10-67443 Doc. 318), it is hereby ORDERED that

- (1) all related motions for joinder are GRANTED; and
- (2) the motion is DENIED.¹

BY THE COURT:

/s/ David R. Strawbridge
DAVID R. STRAWBRIDGE
UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

¹ While unclear, it appears that CVLO argues for the first time in this motion that we should not have struck certain early interrogatory responses because they were served during the mediation phase of these cases. Presumably, CVLO is contending that because interrogatory responses served pursuant to Judge Reed’s October 5, 2010 letter order (<http://www.paed.uscourts.gov/mdl875r.asp>) could include, for purposes of mediation only, “a signed certification to the accuracy of a plaintiff’s answers . . . by plaintiff’s counsel of record” in lieu of the Plaintiff’s signature, we were wrong to strike them for lack of client verification. However, these early interrogatory sets lack any signature or a certification, thus, even for mediation purposes, they are infirm. Regardless, once the cases were removed from mediation, pursuant to Judge Reed’s letter orders and the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, such a certification was no longer sufficient.
