NOTICE

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania is pleased to announce the implementation of an updated court website in January 2016. The user-friendly format will allow for efficient access to all pertinent information.

The updated website will contain all information currently available on our website, including court information, judges' information, jury information, local rules, forms, and other court website links. Also included will be new information on the upcoming CJA eVoucher program, including manuals and video tutorials for attorneys.
