Judicial Biography

Judge Kenney graduated from Villanova University, Class of 1977, and Temple Law, Class of 1980 where he was a member of the Law Review. He embarked on his professional career in the City of Philadelphia.

In 1988, he transitioned his practice out of the city to Delaware County, immediately joining the Delaware County Bar Association where he served on the Board of Directors before taking the bench. He co-chaired the Federal Courts Committee. He was twice elected Delaware County Sheriff. In 2003, he was nominated by Governor Edward G. Rendell to fill a vacancy on the Court of Common Pleas of Delaware County. In November of 2003, he was elected to a full ten year term and, in 2013 he was retained by the electorate to serve another ten year term.

In 2012, he was elected by his judicial colleagues to serve a five-year term as the President Judge for the Delaware County bench.

He was nominated by President Donald J. Trump to the court in 2017, and was confirmed by the United States Senate in 2018.
