

THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA

NOTICE

The United States District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania is pleased to welcome the Honorable Caroline Goldner Cinquanto as a United States Magistrate Judge. Judge Goldner Cinquanto took the oath of office on May 8, 2025.

U.S. Magistrate Judge Caroline Goldner Cinquanto began her legal career as a Judge Advocate in the United States Navy where she received the Navy-Marine Corps Medal of Commendation and the Navy Achievement Medal. After her military service, Judge Goldner Cinquanto worked as an assistant defender at the Defender Association of Philadelphia. She later joined Temple University's Beasley School of Law as an associate professor where she directed the Masters in Trial Advocacy Program. During this period, Goldner Cinquanto also resumed her roll as a Judge Advocate in the United States Air Force following the events of September 11th.

Since 2007, Judge Goldner Cinquanto established her law practice specializing in federal criminal defense. Additionally, she serves as an adjunct professor at Villanova Law School where she teaches Advanced Trial Advocacy. Judge Goldner Cinquanto frequently instructs for the National Institute of Trial Advocacy and the Pennsylvania Bar Institute. She also has taught internationally for various legal organizations in China, Poland, and throughout Africa.

Judge Goldner Cinquanto is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers and a member of the Emeritus Council for the Pennsylvania Innocence Project where she served as a founding board member.

Judge Goldner Cinquanto received her Juris Doctorate from Catholic University's Columbus School of Law in 1992 and her LL.M. in Trial Advocacy from Temple University's Beasley School of Law in 1998.
