4. 1824 to 1826: Congress Hall, Sixth and Chestnut Streets

In 1824, the Court moved a few yards west from City Hall to Congress Hall, originally constructed as the Philadelphia County Courthouse, at Sixth and Chestnut Streets.