2. 1990 to Present: Fourth Floor, Holmes Building, 101 Larry Holmes Drive

In December of 1990, the Court was relocated across the street to leased space on the fourth floor of the Holmes Building at 101 Larry Holmes Drive. The complex takes up the entire 8,860 square foot fourth floor and includes judicial chambers, a courtroom, a jury deliberation room, private conference rooms, a law library, and a substation for United States Marshals with three holding cells for prisoners. The new courtroom was made handicap accessible.
